REVOL WIRELESS AWARDS $16,500 GRAND PRIZE

Urbana, Ohio Man is Grand Prize winner in "Test Drive Revol" Sweepstakes.

On March 31, 2009, Revol Wireless presented the grand prize winner of the Test Drive Revol Sweepstakes with a check for $16,500, the retail value of a 2009 Honda Civic DX Sedan, to Paul Reuter of Urbana, Ohio. The Test Drive Revol Sweepstakes was open to residents of Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana from October 1 through December 31, 2008. Mr. Reuter mailed his entry in late October.

"This was a total fluke, said Mr. Reuter. "My sister told me about the contest - she gave me the entry form. I sent it in but never thought I'd win. I've never won anything before in my life. My wife and I were shocked when we found out we won the grand prize."

As the grand prize winner, Mr. Reuter had his choice of a brand new Honda Civic or the cash equivalent. As a 25-year employee of Honda, Mr. Reuter opted for the cash equivalent. "I paint motorcycles and cars for Honda. The cars are great, but I could use the cash." Mr. Reuter and his wife plan to pay off their debts, then put the remaining money into savings. The Reuters have two daughters – one in college and one who wants the new automobile. But unlike past financial decisions, this one will go towards their own needs. "We've earned it," Mrs. Reuter said.

"We were thrilled to present this award to the Reuters," said Matthew Owens, Marketing Director at Revol Wireless. "At Revol, we believe in making wireless affordable. Making life more affordable for this hard-working Urbana couple makes us proud to be an Ohio-based company that contributes to its local community."

Two first-place winners were awarded 42" flat screen televisions and three second-place winners received an Apple iPod touch®.
